

Potential Building Site at The Willows, Hoy, KW16 3NY

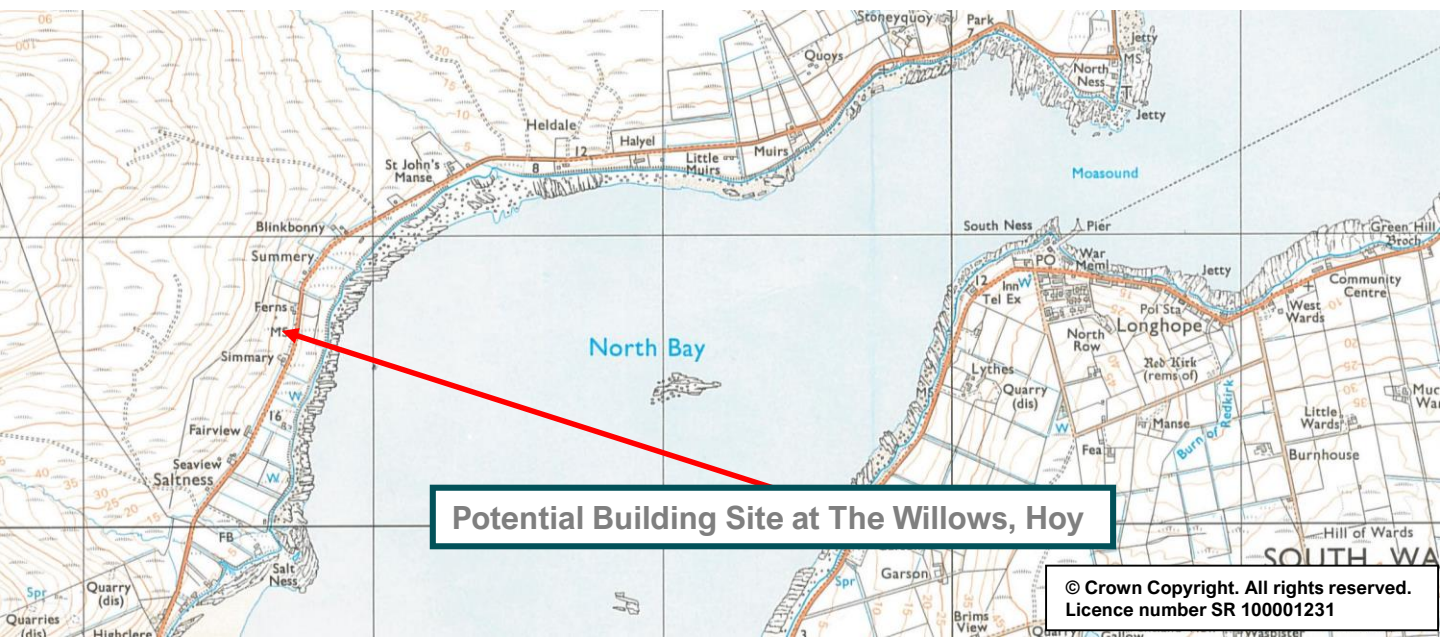

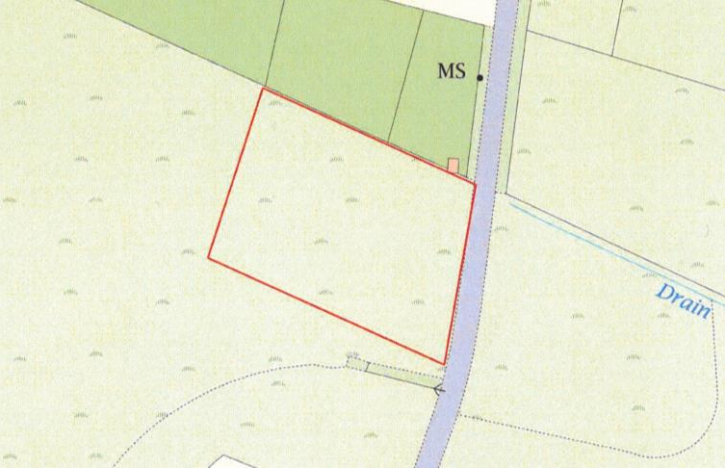

With beautiful views over North Bay this potential building plot lies in an area of the island known as Simmary, Norse for Summer. The plot which extends to approx. 2500m² (0.6 acre), is screened to the North by trees and has an open aspect to the rear with views towards a SSSI. A further area of ground to the rear of the plot may be available by separate negotiation.

There is an electricity pole with transformer within the boundaries and it is understood mains water runs alongside the public road, the purchaser will be liable for servicing the site.

Offers subject to the purchaser obtaining planning consent will be considered.

Local amenities include a primary school, swimming pool, general store with sub-post office and hotels. The island is connected to the Orkney mainland by a scheduled ferry service.
