Chalmersquoy is a highly successful holiday accommodation provider comprising a 3 en-suite bedroom B&B, 2 bedroom self-catering unit, 1 bedroom self-catering unit, 5 bedroom hostel and campsite together with the Graand Owld Byre venue, sports hall and 2 large multi-purpose stores.

The business is situated at the south end of Pierowall village and enjoys beautiful views across the picturesque bay.

The well-presented property enjoys a prime location and benefits from many repeat bookings including from businesses who have workers staying overnight on the island.

The most recent addition, the Graand Owld Byre, is a popular music venue and is also available for private functions and meetings. The spacious sports hall has lines for a badminton court and hosts regular pickleball sessions.

The B&B, self-catering units and hostel all have oil-fired central heating.

The business is being offered for sale due to the impending retirement of the owners and the new owners may wish to consider using the B&B or one of the self-catering units as owners' accommodation.

The campsite welcomes tents, caravans and motorhomes. It has 20 pitches, 13 with electric hook-ups.

Chalmersquoy have their own website which can be made available to the new owners, and presently do not market through Booking.com or any other agency, preferring to handle each booking personally.

Westray is one of Orkney's outer isles and its amenities include several general stores and a primary and junior secondary school. There are many places of archaeological interest together with numerous beautiful beaches and a popular puffin population in the summer months.

The island is connected to the Orkney Mainland via scheduled ferry and air services.
