OFFERS OVER £220,000
£15,000 less than home report valuation

Faroe is a spacious 2-3 bedroom dwellinghouse enjoying beautiful views across farmland, moorland hills and with sea views out towards Eday. The attractive property is set in a large garden of about 1 acre which is bordered by the Suso burn.

There is a hosted 5kW wind turbine together with oil fired central heating and uPVC framed double glazed windows. The house has laminate flooring throughout.

The accommodation includes a dual aspect living room and a large dual aspect kitchen with dining area. The living room could be used as a master bedroom. There are 2 reception rooms in the centre of the house that have previously been used as office/study/hobby rooms. One of these has a traditional box bed.

There is a bathroom with corner bath and shower, and a separate shower room. There are two utility rooms. Included in the sale are what is believed to be the roofs and external doors of 2 conservatories, the south aspect conservatory will connect the living room and kitchen and take in the sea view.

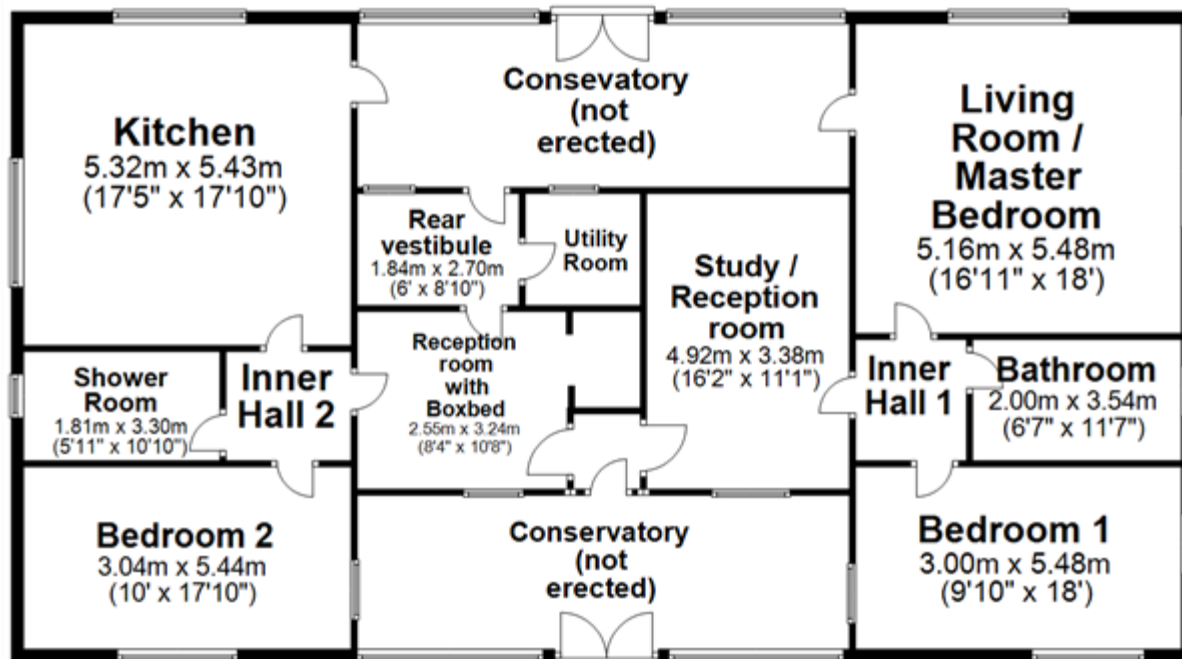

There is a large garage/workshop and a separate stone-built store. The garden includes mature trees and lawn.
