- Access to buildings is not advised due to the poor condition of the roofs

A prospective purchaser should note that this croft land is regulated by the Crofting Commission. This means that the successful purchaser/assignee is agreeing to abide by certain duties regarding the croft land. These duties are:

A duty to be ordinarily resident on, or within 32km (20 miles) of your croft.

A duty to cultivate and maintain your croft or put it to another purposeful use.

A duty not to misuse or neglect your croft.

In addition, there is a legal requirement to return an Annual Notice to the Crofting Commission each year, confirming whether or not you adhere to these duties. Failure to return this notice is a criminal offence, and if as a result of this, any failure to meet the duties is discovered, you could lose the croft or the right to use it.
