Offers Over £480,000

A particular feature of the C listed home is the bright and spacious dual aspect living room/bedroom, complete with an en-suite shower room, offering excellent versatility for family living or guest accommodation. The welcoming kitchen is fitted with a Rangemaster cooker, while the cosy living room features a wood burning stove and direct access to the garden, creating a warm and inviting space to relax. The adjoining sunroom enjoys stunning unrestricted sea views, perfectly positioned to take advantage of the surrounding scenery. Further accommodation includes a utility room and WC, together with a bathroom and two first floor bedrooms, one of which benefits from an en-suite shower room.

Externally, Millhouse enjoys extensive outdoor space including a large detached garage, summer house, sheds, decked areas, vegetable garden, lawn and garden room, all set within generous well maintained garden grounds and acreage which offer excellent lifestyle and smallholding potential.

A particularly exciting feature of the property is the wood clad building currently operating as a tearoom, which may offer potential, subject to the appropriate planning consents, to be converted into a separate dwelling, studio or holiday accommodation.

Situated on the dramatic island of Hoy, renowned for its rugged landscapes and spectacular coastline, the property offers an outstanding opportunity to enjoy rural island living within one of Orkney's most scenic locations.

Millhouse presents a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial home with land, business potential and breathtaking surroundings in a truly special island setting.

EXTRAS

Floor coverings, curtains, blinds, bedroom wardrobes, Rangemaster and white goods are included in the sale price. Some additional items may be available by separate negotiation.
